Introduction

Brief History

The University School of Law was established in June 1977. Initially the classes were conducted at the School of Languages of the University. Then after Acharatlal Girdharlal Charity Trust donated for construction of Independent Building and foundation stone(Shilanyas) laid down by Prof.Pratap Chandra Chundar, Hon'ble Minister of Education, Union of India on 19-11-1977 In the year of 1982 the School was sifted to its own building.

In the beginning two courses at LL.M. were offered in the subject of Commercial Laws and Criminal Laws.

Present Scenario

On the recommendation of the Curriculum Development Committee (CDC) of UGC report the School, restructured the whole LL.M. course with a view to offer a specialization at Post Graduate level study in Law and at present we are offering the following two year (4 semester) full time courses.

Intellectual Property Rights

After emergence of WTO, it has become imperative for all nations to protect the intellectual Property Rights (IPR) of their citizens and to make suitable laws in this regard.

Keeping this in view, the University School of Law, Gujarat University has realized the importance of this branch of law and adopted a two year LL.M. programme in Intellectual Property Right from the academic year 2005-06.

As per the Survey conducted by "India Today and ORG Group" for 2012, the School of Law is Ranked 1st Position in Gujarat and 17th Position in India to Impart Legal Education.

Infrastructure Facilities

The School is adequately equipped with infrastructure facilities. All the faculty members have been provided with personal computers with internet facility. We have the department library with internet facility and sufficient nos of books pertaining to the subjects offered along with Supreme Court Case online and AIR, and Manupatra and other Software relating to IPR and CD's on the Law Commission of India Reports.
